

Westfield Local Treasures

Fresh air

Playing fields

Bus routes

Schools and college

Housing estates which are classic examples of urban design of their times

Notable buildings such as Westfield House, the Police Station, the Old Stables behind Chish and Fips

The mining heritage shown in the old coal batch, coal yard and coal path, miners cottages and gardens

The original Fosseway

Nature walk along the cycle path

Waterside Valley

Westfield people

Enterprise including Mitchards

Shambles, which could be enhanced

St Hugh's, which could be enhanced for the community

Fire Station

Police Station site

The Railway Pub

Old wartime bunker at Inner Elm Treasure

Community social clubs - Mardons, Westfield and Prattons, which are locally run and provide a lot of events

Not so good things in Westfield

Proliferation of banners, flags and advertising boards

The current state of the Shambles

Lack of Post Office

State of pavements and roads

Street lighting

Bins